

Welcome to Indiana's Hometown

this is Indiana.

Your Next
Adventure is Waiting!

Among the rolling hills of Southern Indiana lies Historic Corydon and Harrison County. Take some time and get to know Indiana's first state capitol. Make your way through the scenic back roads and discover our award winning wineries. Relax and enjoy time with friends and family as you delight in tastings served with southern hospitality. If indoor adventure is for you stay at Horseshoe Southern Indiana and enjoy gaming, shows and a tantalizing choice of restaurants. For history lovers, discover Historic Corydon's rich past. Tour the Corydon Capitol State Historic Sites and visit the Battle of Corydon Memorial Park which commemorates the only Civil War battle fought on Indiana soil. Be sure to make time to visit the caves while in Historic Corydon for an unmatched underground experience. See Ice Age Bones, rushing rivers, amazing underground waterfalls, take an underground boat ride and learn about the thriving eco system. Take time to enjoy the sights with a leisurely walk through our parks and nature reserve or soar through the trees on a zip line experience. After a full day of adventure retire for the evening in one of our local hotels or discover the cozy charm of a bed and breakfast or a scenic hideaway.

We are centrally located for over half the United States, and within driving distance of these cities:

From There To Here

Chicago, IL	313	Indianapolis, IN	132
Cincinnati, OH	131	Louisville, KY	26
Cleveland, OH	373	Memphis, TN	375
Columbus, OH	234	Nashville, TN	193
Detroit, MI	410	Pittsburgh, PA	371
Evansville, IN	98	St. Louis, MO	240

Order a free Harrison County Visitors Guide at:

888-738-2137

thisisIndiana.org

INDIANA'S BICENTENNIAL

1816-2016

CORYDON, IN, FIRST STATE CAPITAL

Be sure to stay informed about the upcoming Bicentennial Celebration in 2016 by visiting

www.indianabicentennial.com

thisisIndiana.org

Like us on facebook

Making History

Before the circled star adorned Indianapolis as state capital, Hoosiers could boast Corydon as Indiana's birthplace. Tour the federal-style architecture of the state's original capitol building with its massive limestone walls and beautifully preserved interior. Corydon is an experience unique to Indiana. Witness fourth-generation craftsmen mold molten glass into fantastic creations at Zimmerman Art Glass. Class will be in session at the Leora Brown School, one of Indiana's oldest standing African-American schoolhouses. This quaint southern town hasn't forgotten where this state came from.

A Taste for Adventure

Historic Corydon and Harrison County offers some of the best experiences in the state! Discover Indiana's Underground by exploring our caves and caverns. See amazing formations and take an underground boat ride for an unmatched underground experience. For above ground adventure soar through the tree tops, play a few rounds of miniature golf or choose from one of our 3 top-notch golf courses. For the big kids, stop by one of our wineries for tours and tastings or spend the day gaming at Horseshoe Southern Indiana. Whether you explore our caves, visit our wineries, soar through the tree tops or spend the day gaming, you will be sure to make memories that will last a lifetime.

Out on the Town

Treat your taste buds to a tantalizing variety of food and frivolous fun as you spend your day shopping in the Downtown Corydon Shopping District. A treasure is sure to be found! Try your luck at casino gaming or tap your feet to the beat at the Corydon Jamboree. Settle in for the night in accommodations that suit any mood, from the cozy charm of a bed & breakfast to the convenience of our hotels. However you choose to spend your visit in Historic Corydon and Harrison County, you're sure to receive warm hospitality only a Hoosier can give. You see, in Harrison County, we see new faces as friends in waiting. Remember ... this is Indiana!

Visit thisisIndiana.org to begin planning your next getaway.